

I am concerned if the FCC goes to LPFM broadcast service, as a resident in a rural area I may not get radio stations such as K-LOVE. Along with my children, I enjoy the wholesome values and encouragement that K-LOVE gives. If K-LOVE is displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, where would people in my community turn for the unique inspiration and uplifting that we now get from K-LOVE? I believe it is in the public's best interest to make sure that this service provided by K-LOVE, not be lost because of some new broadcast service.
